Overview

Mr. Dahlmeier is a products liability trial lawyer with extensive experience defending agribusiness, product manufacturers, and product suppliers across the United States.

As lead counsel on a substantial number of large exposure cases before state and federal courts across the nation, Mr. Dahlmeier leverages his litigation experience and specialized technical knowledge to favorably resolve his clients' disputes. He has handled more than 500 fire and explosions cases, often drawing upon his extensive forensic investigation and specialized technical training relating to propane and natural gas. He has also handled many products liability cases related to agribusiness.

Mr. Dahlmeier is chair of Bassford Remele's Products Liability Practice Group.
