Overview

John Kipper is an attorney focusing on family law, business and commercial litigation, and construction and real estate.

Before joining Bassford Remele, John was an attorney at a litigation defense and insurance coverage firm, where he was an associate in its insurance coverage group, primarily working on first-party property coverage disputes.

John was a law clerk for the Honorable Rebecca Rossow, a Family Court Referee of the Second Judicial District. John graduated cum laude from Mitchell Hamline School of Law, where he served as a primary editor for Volume 44 of the Mitchell Hamline Law Journal of Public Policy. John worked for the Minneapolis Department of Civil Rights, Complaint Investigation Division, and later a national family law firm during law school.
