About the Job

Job Description:

Join a growing healthcare litigation practice and work closely with an experienced and collaborative team on complex, high-stakes matters involving healthcare providers, systems, and regulated entities. This role offers meaningful courtroom exposure, hands-on responsibility, and the opportunity to develop deep expertise in an increasingly complex regulatory environment.

Key Responsibilities:

- Advise healthcare providers, systems, and related businesses on regulatory and compliance matters
- Support transactional work, including provider agreements, joint ventures, and operational arrangements
- Assist with healthcare-related litigation and administrative proceedings
- Work directly with clients on day-to-day legal and operational issues
- Collaborate with attorneys across practice groups on interdisciplinary matters

Qualifications:

- Juris Doctor (JD) degree from an accredited law school
- 3–4 years of experience in healthcare law, regulatory matters, or complex commercial litigation
- Ability to manage multiple matters in a fast-paced environment
- Strong client service mindset and collaborative approach
- Strong command of the written word and excellent verbal communication skills
- Attitude above all else – willingness to jump in with both feet, to be coachable, and to work well with others as part of a team
- Ability to synthesize complex legal and regulatory concepts into easily understood and digestible terms, for communication to courts, clients and juries
- Proficiency in conducting legal research
- Self-motivated and detail oriented
- Adaptability and ability to manage multiple cases simultaneously.

What We Offer

- Direct mentorship from experienced healthcare litigators
- Substantive responsibility from day one, including courtroom and client exposure
- Opportunity to build a specialized healthcare litigation practice
- Collaborative environment with strong cross-practice support
- Competitive compensation and benefits package

Salary:

$155,000 - $175,000 annual base salary, commensurate with experience
